

Spanish Culture & Cuisine

"La Tuna de Xabia"

Friday 28th June 2019

La Tuna de Xabia are a very colourful group of entertainers who are continuing a Spanish tradition which dates back to the early 13th century: the sopistas were poor students who made the most of their musical talent by strolling through the towns entertaining the locals in return for a bowl of soup and a few coins to help them pay for their studies - Angela will give a short presentation prior to dinner to explain all !

Venue: Hotel Parador de Jávea

- 19.00 hrs: A welcome glass of cava on arrival, in the garden.
- 19.30 hrs: A short presentation on La Tuna in Spain.
- 20.00 hrs: A 3-course dinner with water, half bottle of wine pp and coffee included.
- 22.00 hrs: Entertainment by La Tuna de Xabia.
- 23.00 hrs: End of evening

Price: €35 pp to include menu (to follow), drinks, entertainment and gratuity). Booking is now open and payment can be made at the Jávea U3A meeting in the Parador or by bank transfer (please include the bank transfer code: TUNA along with your name).

Spanish Culture & Cuisine
Angela Chantry & Tony Dearie